Day 2 AM: MORENO POINT PM: ELIZABETH BAY

Moreno Point is a magical place with extensive lava fields which look lifeless at first sight. Once scattered brackish lagoons form oasis of life where you can find flamingoes, gallinules, ducherons. Along the shore we will look for penguins, marine iguanas, flightless cormorants, blue -boobies, sea lions, oystercatchers and other shore birds. Snorkel: We will snorkel to see sea turtles, cormorants and many species of fish. Look carefullylong seaweeds and you might find a sea horse. Highlights: American flamingoes, ducks, gallinules, penguins, cormorants, marine iguanas, seaGalapagos m ockingbirds, Darwin finches. Elizabeth Bay is a beautiful sheltered bay surrounded by large mangroves and barren lava fieldsThere is no trail here so you will take a dinghy tour to explore many channels, pools and coves teeming with life. This is one of the best locations in the islands to see Galapagos penguins, but expect to see thousands of them, as the entire population of the islands is only about 3.000 of tFlightless cormorants also nest in the area and blue -footed boobies and pelicans often fish in thshallow and rich waters. Rays and sea turtles are also very abundant. Highlights: Galapagos hawks, sea turtles, rays, Galapagos penguins, flightless cormorants, hero

Day 3 AM: URBINA BAY PM: TAGUS COVE

This place is known for the dramatic uplifting that happened here during the 1950's. A large porthe coast was pushed up, exposing many hectares of previously submerged land. Look carefullythe trail and you will find small shells and corals, a proof that the area was underwater more thayears ago. The trail will give the opportunity to see land iguanas and, during certain seasonstortoises. Galapagos hawks nest in the area and are often seen flying or perched on the trees. Snorkel: You can snorkel from the beach to see sea turtles, cormorants and penguins. Fish arabundant in the area. Highlights: Galapagos hawks, land iguanas, Galapagos hawks, Galapagos mockingbirds, Dfinches, flycatchers. Tagus cove is one of the places Charles Darwin visited during his exploration of the Galapagos isA trail will take you through a dry Palo Santo forests where you can see Darwin finchemockingbirds. You will get great views of Darwin's lake and the large volcanos of northern IsabeA boat tour along the shore will give you chances to see penguins, cormorants, marine iguanasvery unique species: the Galapagos martin, a small endemic bird which is one of the most endanspecies on the island. Snorkel: The nutrient -rich waters around Tagus Cove attracts a lot of sea turtles and a great diof fish, but also penguins, who feast on large schools of anchovies. It is common to see cormunderwater as they chase fish through the reef. Highlights: Galapagos hawks, marine iguanas, flightless cormorants, herons, penguins, sea turtlstars.

Day 4 AM: ESPINOZA POINT PM: VICENTE ROCA POINT

Located at the base of an imposing volcano (the most active in the Galapagos islands) this site is the jewels of the Galapagos National Park. As soon as you disembark you will be surroundhundreds of marine iguanas, as this is the largest colony for the species. Sea lions bask in the bewhile their pups play in tide pools. Along the shore you will see flightless cormorants, whirestricted to the western areas of the archipelago. Surrounded by cold plankton -rich waters,Espinosa is home for an array of species, including herons, pelicans, oystercatchers, sea tshorebird and many more. Look up in the mangroves as Galapagos hawks often perch to look foprey.

Snorkel: The nutrient -rich waters around Punta Espinosa attracts great numbers and diversity and sea turtles. Seaweeds are also abundant, making this place the best for seeing marine life feeding underwater. Following a cormorant underwater as it chases fish through the reef is one most amazing snorkel experiences you may have on your trip. Highlights: Galapagos hawks, marine iguanas, flightless cormorants, penguins, sea turtles, seaherons, oystercatchers, shorebirds, sally light-foot crabs. Surrounded by some of the tallest cliffs in the Galapagos, Vicente Roca point is a great location to observe spectacular landscapes and interesting volcanic features. There is no trail here but take a dinghy tour along the shore to get a closer view of pelicans, flightless cormorants, sea boobies, Galapagos fur seal and marine iguanas. The area is also known to be a good location for wandering dolphins. Snorkel: Snorkel in the cove to look for sea turtles, penguins, sea lions, cormorants, rays and different species of fish. Look for fan corals, sponges and other invertebrates growing on the wall. Highlights: Marine iguanas, flightless cormorants, penguins, sea turtles, fur seals, Nazca & blue-footed boobies

Day 5 AM: EGAS PORT PM: RABIDA

Despite its name, there is no "port" at Puerto Egas, but you might see a few remains of the last attempt to colonize the island during the 60's. The trail goes along the coastline which is rich in wildlife. Marine iguanas basking in the sun everywhere, Galapagos sea lions, herons, oystercatchers and shorebirds. At the end of the trail an area called "the grottos" is home for a small colony of the Galapagos fur seal, much more difficult to see at close range than its cousin. As recently as 2011 iguanas were re-introduced to the area, so look around for these impressive reptiles which extinct from Santiago for over a century. Snorkel: You can snorkel from the beach and explore an area of rocky bottoms which is excellent for fish, turtles and reef sharks. Often, sea lions are also present and are happy to interact with divers. Highlights: Galapagos sea lions, Galapagos fur seals, oystercatchers, marine & land iguanas, Galapagos hawks, herons, shorebirds, Darwin finches, Galapagos doves. Rabida is a small island famous for its reddish lava rocks (rich in iron) which gives it a unique look. The beach is also red and hosts a small colony of sea lions. There is a small salt water lagoon where you see ducks and stilts and sometimes flamingoes. The trail will take you inland to get beautiful views of the beach and the lagoon. Look for Darwin finches, flycatchers and mockingbirds. In the cliffs along the coast you can find Nazca & blue-footed boobies, brown noddies, herons and the two species of Galapagos fur seals. Snorkel: You can snorkel from the beach and explore a sheltered rocky area, which is excellent for sea lions and reef sharks. Look at the high diversity of small invertebrates attached to the vertical rock. Highlights: Red-sand beach, Galapagos sea lions, Galapagos hawks, flycatchers, Darwin finches, Galapagos mockingbirds, ducks, flamingoes.

Day 6 AM: BLACK TURTLE COVE

Black Turtle Cove gets its name from the abundance of green sea turtles, locally known as: "tonegras". There is no landing here so you will be doing a boat tour on the dinghies, exploring channels and small coves surrounded by beautiful mangrove forests. Reef sharks, sea turtles, several species of rays inhabit this beautiful area which is considered an important mating area for and a nursery for several species of sharks. Herons, pelicans and boobies are also common here. Prey in schools of anchovies. Highlights: White-tipped and black-tipped reef sharks, green sea turtles, rays, herons, blue-footed boobies,
