Visit a salmon farm where the process of salmon farming will be explained.

Cruise past a king shag colony. King shags can only be found in this remote part of New Zealand.

Cast your rod and try your luck at catching blue cod and other species in the waters of this area. There's nothing like eating fresh fish caught by your own hands.

Visit Motuara Island - a bird sanctuary where robins, tui, kiwi, bellbirds and kakariki parakeets live. Hear the birdsong and look out for the rare South Island saddleback as you walk along.

Go ashore at Ship Cove where English explorer Captain James Cook made his home in the early 1770s. Here you will find information panels explaining early Maori occupation and a monument to honour Captain Cook.

Walk sections of the award-winning Queen Charlotte Track, which features regenerated native bush with giant rimu, nikau, beech trees, and tree ferns.

Experience the beauty and tranquillity of the Marlborough Sounds as we leisurely cruise through the hidden bays and coves of the Sounds.
